

History Focus:	Turrets and Tiaras	Year 2:	Autumn Term 2
-----------------------	--------------------	----------------	---------------

Diagrams and Symbols
Parts of a Castle	The British Royal Family	Spelling	Definition
			stone wall so arrows ugh them while still her. rt of the walls at the uilt to protect used to cross the raised and lowered. in the very middle of lug all around the le walls and then especially a king or

Key Knowledge
Castles	Castles were built to defend and protect. They were only as good as their defences and most of the building parts had a defensive reason.
Motte and Bailey	The first castles were built by the Normans and were called Motte and Bailey castles. The keep was built on a hill called a motte and the grounds were like a courtyard called a bailey.
Life inside the Castle	Lots of people worked inside a castle doing many different jobs. There were knights, soldiers, watchmen, cooks, servants and many more!
Queen Elizabeth II	Great Britain is ruled by Queen Elizabeth II. She was born on 21 st April 1926. She is 94 years old. She is the longest reigning monarch ever in Britain.
Since we were born...	Since we were born, the royal family has changed. Queen Elizabeth II is still the monarch . The wedding of Prince Harry and Meghan took place in 2018, they had a baby called Archie in 2019 before moving to North America in 2020. Prince William and Kate also had their third baby in 2018, Prince Louis.

portcullis	A heavy, metal gate with jagged teeth at the bottom.
royal	A member of the king or queen's family.
turret	A small, thin window in the main towers of the castle.